'round town

with Betty Allen...

There seem to be a few things that need mentioning this week... the California Garden Clubs, Inc., remind us that it's again time to remember NOT to pick our wild flowers and shrubs. They point out that careless and wasteful picking of these delightful flowers is threatening some of the world-famous varieties with extinction. Usually the flowers will before they ever reach water but if we leave them in their natural habitat they may be enjoyed by countless other people and will also be free to multiply and give pleasure for many years.

More important than the wild flowers, however, is the preservation of our children and the carelessness of motorists in the vicinity of school busses is no help. The California laws require that any motorist, whether he is approaching or coming behind a school bus, MUST stop when the bus does and must not start again until it does. Too many of our drivers are in too much of a hurry to observe this law. It's doubtful if the minute or two saved thus is as important as not taking a chance on striking a child who may be alighting from the bus.

A news story tells of a group of Campbell women who are anxious to establish a local Campfire Girls Council in Campbell. This character building agency and others like it are badly needed in Campbell because of the rapidly growing population and the need for combating juvenile delinquency. This is one way to train community leaders for the future but it seems we need some community leaders for the present. There are any number of boys and girls eager to join such groups but, since membership in the established ones is limited, the formation of new groups is necessary and the sad truth is that there is no adult leadership available. Maybe we need to take stock of our personal activities and re-evaluate them. They would have to be pretty important to shove out a chance to devote a few hours a week to building for the future.

One section of the community which certainly deserves a hand for youth work and community endeavors is the Cambrian district. They seem to enter wholeheartedly into projects out there and the children get a break—no lack of adult leadership there. Maybe they could give the rest of us some pointers!

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fish appointed themselves a committee to collect some money in Campbell for little Marilyn Muzzurco, ill of a rare disease in San Jose. They did not go very far though, before the quota was reached. Between the Fishes, the Women's Christian Service Club of the Methodist church, and Miss Rachel Spradling, a contribution of $25 was made.

Jumbo, the rare Peruvian stallion whose picture appeared on the front page of last Thursday's Press, died that night of an unexplained illness.

The Campbell Press promises results to its advertisers but even we were amazed when the Campbell Pharmacy received an order from Guam as a result of an ad for baby needs. A young mother living in Guam receives the paper from Campbell relatives and the advertised items were just what she wanted!

X-ray Trailer Slated 2 Days

Next Wednesday and Thursday, Campbell residents will have an opportunity to avail themselves of free chest x-rays when the Santa Clara County Tuberculosis Association's chest x-ray trailer visits Campbell. From 2 until 7 p.m. the trailer will be parked in front of the Campbell theater for both of the scheduled days.

All reports on the x-rays will be mailed confidentially to those desiring them.

This work is sponsored by the County Health Department and is paid for by the funds received from the sale of Christmas Seals.

Deed Presented To Legion at Ceremony In IOOF Hall

Last evening's ceremony at the American Legion meeting marked a step forward in Campbell development when Mrs. Nick Hedegard presented the Legionnaires with the deed to a lot on Latimer near Esther where a new Legion Hall will be erected.

FELLOWSHIP GROUP MEETS

The new college fellowship of the Congregational church met last Sunday evening at the home of Miss Joyce Berglund on North Campbell. The discussion on race was led by Buzz Jones.

Plans for future activities of the group were discussed and refreshments were served.

Next Sunday evening the group will meet at the home of Bill Smith on North Winchester.

New Garden Club Meets Wednesday

Much interest has been shown in the formation of a garden club for Campbell and on Wednesday, March 19, at least 20 charter members will meet at the home of Mrs. Harold Peck, 141 N. First St., at 2 p.m.

The group will meet twice a month at the homes of members except during the months of October, November and December, when they will hold monthly sessions.

Instead of a president for the group, it is planned to have a "chairman of the day" for each meeting with a secretary, treasurer and publicity chairman to conduct the business.

The new organization hopes to have an annual "exchange day" when members will exchange choice plants as well as an annual flower show.

Working out the year's program will be the main business at the first meeting and all interested women are urged to attend.

Among the charter members of the group will be Mesdames H. Wisler, Hallie Harris, Ray Fish, Hazel Dell Wilson, John McBain, Mary Trigueiro, Charles Kankel, Emil Ballott, Ethan Lanphear, Hanna Barber, Violet Gripenstraw, Mabel Maasberg, Bart O'Brien, Monica Parr, Laurence J. Hill, Ricardo Villafuertes, George Wesley, Florine Peake, Marian Peake, Rudy Nelson, R. A. Steindorf and Harold Peck.

ACCIDENT FACTORS

Undue speed, inattention and carelessness are factors in nearly every automobile accident, says the California State Automobile Association.

The property was given to the Legion Post 596 by Nick Hedegard, Campbell's unofficial mayor. He died a few months ago before the official presentation of the deed could be made.

Present for the affair last evening were members of the Legion Auxiliary whose officers were seated with those of the Legion. Al Carter, Legion commander, presided and introduced the numerous visitors who included, in addition to out-of-town guests, community leaders and presidents of local organizations.

Among the distinguished guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Sid Brannaman. Mr. Brannaman is a junior past district commander and Mrs. Brannaman is president of the state auxiliary.

Also present were the Hedegards' two sons and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Hedegard and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hedegard, all of Modesto; and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reese of Campbell.

The meeting was turned over to Rex Fuller, chairman of the Legion Building Corporation, who received the deed from Mrs. Hedegard. This ceremony was followed by a musical program featuring Lorraine Wood, Katharine Fuller and Mildred Weeks, all daughters of Legionnaires.

Bill Weeks, also a member of the Building Corporation committee, introduced the speaker of the evening, Dr. Heber Sotzin, professor of industrial arts at San Jose State College, who spoke on "Objects of the American Legion."

Following his talk, refreshments were served to members and guests. In charge of this were John Hummel, John Crawford and Roy Prestigiacomo.

Chester Root New Commissioner

Chester Root, Los Gatos architect, has been appointed by the County Board of Supervisors to fill the vacancy on the County Planning Commission left by the resignation of Herbert Shadle. Root and Patrick Peabody, publisher of the Campbell Press, are the two newest members of the board.

The United States is now producing 58 billion quarts of milk annually.

Thursday, March 13, 1947

These happy grins on the faces of Campbell Legionnaires are because they are receiving the deed to the property on which the new Legion Hall will be erected. From left to right: James Peer, first vice-commander; Rex Fuller, president, Building Corporation; William Weeks of the Building Corporation and, most important, Mrs. Nick Hedegard presenting the deed.

Death Takes Mrs. Genasci

After a long illness, Mrs. Albina Genasci died yesterday afternoon in a San Jose hospital. A resident of Campbell since 1906, Mrs. Genasci was well known here and had a host of friends. She came to this country in 1894 from Switzerland.

Surviving her are her husband, Louis Genasci; two sons, Louis E. and Edward A. Genasci of Campbell; three grandchildren, Melvin E. Genasci of Los Angeles and Donald G. and Nadine Genasci, both of Campbell; a sister, Mrs. Amelia Smith of San Francisco and a brother, Joseph Scaroni of Astoria.

Final rites for Mrs. Genasci will be conducted at the Rutherford Funeral Home on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, followed by interment in Oak Hill Memorial Park. The Rev. Lawrence Osborne of the Campbell Methodist church will officiate at the services.

Mount Davidson in San Francisco has an elevation of 916 feet, the highest point in the city.

Cast All Set For Play

The curtain will rise tonight at 8:15 on the senior class play at Campbell Union High School. The performance will be given tomorrow night, also.

Chosen as the vehicle for this annual affair is "Life of the Party," written by Marijane and Joseph Haynes. Central characters in this gay comedy are the Hughes family. Mr. Hughes is constantly confused by the antics of his family while his wife is somewhat of a snob. The oldest daughter, a college freshman, is in love with the son of a bank president. Her sister, Jean, is also bitten by the love bug. It is Jean who decides she wants to be the "life of the party." The girls' brother also plays a leading role.

Directed by Dean Chamberlin, the production, after faithful rehearsing, is expected to be smooth and expert.

Boy Drowns In Los Gatos Creek

Howard Harrison, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Harrison, of 189-A Dillon Avenue, was drowned yesterday afternoon at 5:30 while playing with a companion, Tommy Foressee, 13, on a raft in Los Gatos Creek at the Western Gravel Company plant. The boys had been playing on the raft when it overturned and the Harrison boy, unable to swim, was drawn below the surface of the water.

Local Man Killed On Campbell Ave.

Struck by a car Sunday morning as he attempted to cross Campbell Ave. at Union Ave., Orban Elaise Gilliam, 29, died shortly after in the County Hospital where he was taken following the accident.

Thomas Johnson, Campbell, driver of the car which struck Gilliam, was not held. He told investigating Highway Patrolman L. C. Braaf-ladt and Clifford Murie that Gilliam, a deaf mute, had walked into his car. It was believed that he had not heard the car approaching as he started across the road.

After striking Gilliam, Johnson's car went out of control and crashed into a vehicle driven by Ivan Ratovich, also of Campbell.

Gilliam, who has been a Campbell resident for approximately 10 years, was employed as a janitor at Permanente. He leaves his widow, Florence; two sons, Jimmy Lutheran and Billie Dean; his mother, Mrs. Blanche Sells, also of Campbell, and five sisters, Mrs. Catherine Gardner of San Francisco, Mrs. Hazel Nelson, Mrs. Hardy Bowden, Leona Sells and Christine Sells, all of Campbell. The family home is on Foote St.

Funeral rites were conducted at Rutherford Funeral Home yesterday at 2 p.m. Interment followed at the Santa Clara City Cemetery.

Mrs. Hill Takes Horizon Club

Under the leadership of Mrs. Laurence Hill the 7:30 Horizon club met on Monday evening to elect the following officers: President, Lois Smith; vice-president, Jeanette Gomes; secretary, Marilyn Ott; treasurer, Marian Page; reporter and historian, Margaret Currie.

The club will hold a formal initiation and installation at their next meeting.

Members are making plans to spend Easter vacation at Santa Cruz with their advisors, Mrs. Hill and Mrs. H. Goodell.

LOW GEAR DRIVING

Driving in low gear longer than necessary causes the engine of your car to use more gasoline per mile, according to the California State Automobile Association.

His companion ran to the gravel company office, about a half mile away, for help.

Constable Ethan Lanphear called the county sheriff's office and the San Jose fire department who responded with a resuscitator.

While the resuscitator was arriving the frantic father, assisted by neighbors, tried to recover the boy's body but it was not until Les Applegarth arrived with a boat from which the workers grappled that the body was found.

Everett York and William Salt, county sheriff's office; Ray Moody, San Jose fire department; the Bigley ambulance crew and Dr. John Mott of Campbell all endeavored to revive the boy for more than two hours before the effort was pronounced futile. They were assisted by numerous anxious bystanders. Light was furnished by spotlights on one of the Campbell fire department trucks.

The boy's body was taken to the Rutherford Funeral Home where funeral arrangements are pending.

In addition to his parents he is survived by two sisters, Gwendolyn and Sammie June.

SULLIVAN ADDRESSES SANITARY BOARD

Members of the Campbell Sanitary Board gathered last evening to hear Dean George L. Sullivan of the University of Santa Clara discuss the county-wide sewage disposal plan. Sullivan is co-author of the "Sullivan-Hyde Plan." He stressed the need of this over-all program and explained how the Campbell Sanitary District would fit into the picture.

LARGE CROWD EXPECTED AT DINNER

More than 100 reservations have been made for the Country Woman's Club annual Men's Dinner to be held Monday evening at the Country Woman's Club building. Mrs. William Henley is in charge of the arrangements which will carry out a circus theme. Dinner will be followed by a program.

Members and guests are asked to come in circus costumes or those of circus spectators.

Prowler Tries To Enter Homes

A prowler attempted to gain entrance through the rear door of the Kenneth Gray home on Harrison Ave., last Sunday evening. The following night, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hodges, also of Harrison Ave., were awakened by a prowler who was unable to gain entrance to their home.

SPRING IN SANTA CLARA VALLEY

Shouting from the hill tops,
Singing from the rills,
Spring has come, a-dancing,
Down the greening hills.
A tiny flower in hiding,
Raised her starry head
When she heard the music
Of Spring's rhythmic tread.
Each dainty little fern frond
Reached forth a tiny hand,
In welcome to the Spring time
Breathing o'er the land.
Lark in the sky, a singing,
Sweetest music ever heard,
Never was a concert
Like that little bird.
All of Nature's children
Join to sing of Spring,
A paean of thanksgiving
Let the joy bells ring!

Clara Beebe Baldwin.

Grammar School Notes

The kindergarten children have been bringing orange crates and boxes of various kinds to school to build a playhouse. They have been working on this and are very anxious to finish it.

During school they color, draw, model clay, sing and play games. During recess and at noon on sunny days they play outdoors with balls, jump ropes and play in the sand box. On rainy days they play indoors with puzzles and blocks and look at picture books.

The kindergarten children, for the most part, enjoy their time at school very much.

Beverly Nickel; HS-1.

Miss Berge's first grade class is much interested in colonial people of Washington's time. Their border is made of pictures of colonial boys and girls. The children are now making Easter cards for their mothers. Many of the children are interested in the kite contest soon to be held at the school. Some of them are competing in the contest.

Louise Tinsley. HS-4.

Mrs. Swane's high fifth grade is bringing Mother's Day cards for soldiers in hospitals to send to their mothers. They are also filling Red Cross boxes to send to children in war-torn countries.

During home-room period a coy reads the story of "Lassie." The children enjoy this story very much. They are getting ready for Easter early. They have already got their border up. It has rabbits, eggs, and ducks. This room is known as the "Lost and Found." If you lose anything, go to them. If you find anything, take it to them and they will find the owner.

Ella Holland. HS-4.

Miss Carlstrom's second grade has made a very attractive border of daffodils. The Campbell Grammar school is soon going to have a kite contest in which their class is very interested. They are going to make their own kites in the very near future.

Campbell Court Notes

By Judge Blaine

This woman said, "My husband came home drunk. He sat down, took out his pocket knife and began to sharpen it on a whetstone. Pretty soon he told me that he was sharpening the knife to cut my throat."

The judge asked: "Has he done anything like this before?"

"Oh, yes; this sort of thing has been going on ever since we married over 20 years ago. But now I'm fed up. I won't stand it any longer. I want my husband arrested for disturbing my peace."

Another woman had this story: "I went away for a few days on a visit. When I got back I found that my husband had rented our apartment to a family and sold these people our furniture."

"Has he ever done anything like this before?"

"Oh, yes. In all the 20 years we've been married he's done just one unreasonable thing after another. I've stood it until now, but I'm tired of it. Something has got to be done."

Older and different is this story. The wife had had the husband arrested for battery. He had pleaded guilty and been put on probation, but still his conduct was not satisfactory. As the wife described his numerous faults in a confidential talk with the judge, the latter was impelled to say:

"You claim that your husband is paying attention to some other woman. Well, in view of what you have told me about him I'd consider him no loss."

Boring the judge through and through with steely gray eyes, and putting emphasis on every word, this woman of the South drew, "You—leave—that—to—me!"

With a judge, as with anybody, it is true, as a local bulletin board

ACOWASIN ACTIVITIES

The Acowasin group marched in the parade on Old Settlers' Day, winning second prize in marching and first prize in youth. The group wore boleros and full uniform. After the parade they had a party at Mrs. Henley's house. Everyone in the group brought something for the party. Games were played before dinner. After dinner the president appointed a clean-up committee.

The group went to O'Brien's candy factory Tuesday, March 4, and Mr. Plesse took us through the factory which was very interesting to the girls. Our leader, Mrs. Powell, took her car and took some of the girls on trip. All had samples of candy. They were making almond brownies and crunch and were packing the brownies in tins. The mixing was done in big copper vats where we could watch.

California Branch of the National Women's Party has issued invitations to key women throughout the Bay region to attend a commemorative tea to be held in honor of Susan B. Anthony, at the Fairmont Hotel in San Francisco Saturday, March 15, from 2 to 5 p.m.

The California branch has for many years conducted commemorative exercises at the Fairmont Hotel on February 15, the date of Susan B. Anthony's birthday. The date this year was unavoidably postponed to March 15.

Kathleen Norris, world famous writer, of Saratoga, will be the guest speaker on this occasion. A number of invitations to the event have been received by a number of local women. Mrs. Neenah Hastings Lessemann of Redwood City, state chairman of the California Branch, will be mistress of ceremonies.

Campbell People Donate Blood

Five residents of Campbell were among the donors last Thursday at the Civilian Blood Donor Center in San Jose. The Center is operated by the San Jose chapter, American Red Cross, in cooperation with the Santa Clara County Medical Society. Campbell is a branch of San Jose chapter.

Last Thursday was one of the best days the Center has had in several weeks, according to Mrs. George Sullivan, recruiting chairman for the blood donor program. "When several residents of a community contribute blood, such as last Thursday's group from Campbell, we stand an excellent chance of making our weekly quota of 70 pints," Mrs. Sullivan said in expressing her thanks to Campbell residents who support the program.

The Center is located at Red Cross headquarters, 440 North First street in San Jose. Donors may go directly to the chapter house or phone Columbia 2068 for appointments. Blood collected is distributed without charge to hospitals, doctors and clinics in the area of San Jose chapter. The Center is open each Tuesday and Thursday from 9 a.m. until noon.

Campbell donors last Thursday included Donald Gilmore, James Gilmore, Grace Newland, Charles Gilmore and Carl Rahn.

Start the Day Right With a Good Breakfast

Breakfast Breads

How's breakfast interest at your home these days? Does everyone look forward to sitting down for breakfast 'cause mother is sure to have some fluffy hot bread that they can smell baking while they're going through the finishing touches of bathing and dressing? Or, is the family anxious to scamper through breakfast without giving it so much as a sniff?

If the latter is the case, then sit down right now and do something drastic about it. You may have to do without bacon and sausage, those breakfast stand-bys, but the ingredients required for breakfast breads are available. Let them give you a lift for that important first meal of the day. Your family can't resist light, fluffy rolls with the tangy smell of cinnamon and raisins, or light and hearty pancakes.

Bran is a good food item for any day of the week, but it's especially good at breakfast when served in these tasty muffins:

Bran-Molasses Muffins

1 1/4 cups flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
3/4 teaspoon baking soda
1 teaspoon salt
1 1/2 cups sour milk or buttermilk
1/3 cup molasses
1 3/4 cups bran
1 egg, slightly beaten
2 tablespoons melted shortening
Sift flour once; measure; add baking powder, soda and salt. Sift again. Add milk, molasses and bran; let stand until most of the liquid is absorbed by the bran. Add egg and melted shortening which has been slightly cooled. Add flour mixture and stir just enough to moisten the dry ingredients. Fill greased muffin pans three-fourths full and bake in a hot (400 degrees) oven for 20 to 25 minutes.

Peanut Butter Bread

3 cups flour
5 tablespoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup sugar
1 cup dates or candied orange peel
1 1/4 cups orange juice or milk
1/2 cup peanut butter
Sift flour; measure, add baking powder, salt and sugar. Sift again and add dates or orange peel. Add milk or orange juice slowly to peanut butter, blending thoroughly. Pour into flour mixture and mix just until dry ingredients are moistened. Do not beat. Turn into a greased loaf pan and bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven for about 1 hour.

Sally Lunn

2 cups flour
3 tablespoons baking powder
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 cup shortening
1 egg
2-3 cup milk
Sift flour; measure and add baking powder and salt; sift again. Cream shortening, add sugar gradually; continue beating until light and fluffy. Add sifted flour mixture and stir just enough to moisten the dry ingredients. Do not beat. Pour batter into a greased square pan, sprinkle with topping and bake in a hot (400 degrees) oven for about 20 minutes. Cut in squares and serve hot.

Topping for Sally Lunn

1/2 cup brown sugar
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1 tablespoon melted butter
Combine brown sugar and cinnamon; blend with butter.

Corn cakes are a variation of pancakes and are especially good on cold, hard-to-get-up mornings. Make them nice and thin and serve with honey or syrup.

Lacy Corn Cakes (makes 40)

1 1/2 cups yellow cornmeal
1 teaspoon salt
2 eggs, well beaten
2 cups milk
4 tablespoons melted shortening

Combine cornmeal and salt. Combine eggs, milk and melted shortening. Pour in cornmeal and stir until well combined. Bake on a hot griddle, stirring batter each time before removing a spoonful. Serve while hot.

Streusel Coffee Cake

1 1/2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon mace
6 tablespoons sugar
2 tablespoons shortening
1 egg
1/2 cup milk

Sift dry ingredients. Cut in the shortening, add unbeaten egg and milk. Stir until smooth. Turn into a square or loaf pan which has been greased and top with the following mixture:

Streusel Topping

4 tablespoons sugar
2 tablespoons butter
1 teaspoon butter
1/4 teaspoon mace

Mix all ingredients with a fork until mixture crumbles. Scatter over top of batter and bake in a hot (400 degrees) oven for 25 minutes.

Blitz Coffee Cake

Bake Streusel coffee cake in tin, preferably a round one. Cover top, before baking, with shaved almonds and brown sugar. After cake has baked and cooled, split in half and spread with whipped cream and raspberry jam.

If you want to impart a buttery flavor to baked goods without using butter itself, then use sour cream. It imparts richness and taste to almost any baked food.

Sour Cream Waffles

1 cup flour
1/4 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
3/4 cup rich sour cream
1/4 cup buttermilk
2 eggs, beaten separately

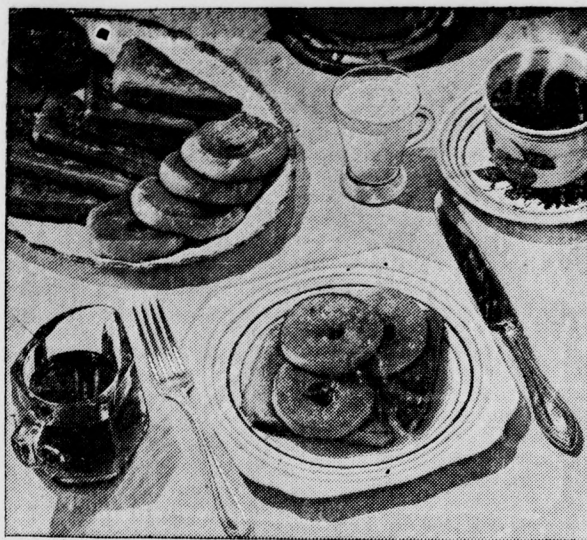

Add well beaten yolks, sour cream and buttermilk to melted shortening and sifted dry ingredients. Mix thoroughly. Fold in carefully the stiffly beaten egg whites and bake on a hot waffle iron.

Campfire Council

A group of community workers interested in furthering the Camp Fire Girls program in Campbell met at the grammar school Monday afternoon to discuss the formation of a local Camp Fire Girls Council similar to the one which is functioning so successfully in Los Gatos. Leaders of the discussion were Mr. Lois Pryor and Miss Lois Young, volunteer president and paid executive, respectively, of the Santa Clara County Camp Fire Girls Council.

Recommendation for this community was more active organization and participation in this character building organization came from national headquarters whose district field representative believes that Campbell is now large enough to have the privilege of making an overall plan for the 110 girls now registered from Campbell in Bluebird, Camp Fire and Horizon club groups. Campbell should also have the responsibility of conducting its own public relations between Camp Fire and the community as well as obtaining new leadership, according to the speakers. At the present time there are 40 girls on a waiting list who wish to form new groups when leaders can be obtained.

Participating in plans for the new Council were Mr. and Mrs. William Henley, Mrs. Frank Richardson, Mrs. C. David Baxter, Mrs. Ray Wood, Mrs. G. K. Schrader, Miss Dorothy Merriman and Miss Helen Stray.

BREAKFAST THAT'S DIFFERENT, delicious, nutritious, sugar-saving—that's French Toast with Sweet Apple Rings, a Prize Breakfast to make the morning's work go quick 'n' easy!

First, brown apple slices slightly in pure, all-vegetable shortening, then add sirup and cook a very few minutes 'til tender. Meanwhile have French Toast sauteing in another pan—when ready, serve piping hot heaped with fragrant apple rings. Why don't you try it tomorrow? But clip the recipes now—and remember, here's a grand way to use day-old bread.

FRENCH TOAST

2 eggs, slightly beaten
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup milk
6-8 slices bread, cut in half diagonally
1/4 cup Spry

Combine eggs, salt, and milk. Dip slices of bread in mixture and saute in hot Spry until golden brown on both sides. Serves 4 to 6.

SWEET APPLE RINGS

3 red-skinned apples, cored and cut into round slices about 1/4 inch thick
2 tablespoons Spry
1 cup dark corn sirup
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla

Fry apple slices in hot Spry until lightly browned. Add corn sirup and salt and cook slowly until apples are tender (about 2-3 minutes). Add vanilla. Serve apple slices and hot sirup over French Toast.

"For Heaven's sake, John. Put it in your saucer."

Make Tastier Breads

When using flour or sugar for bread making, make sure that they are sifted or they will not measure out properly. It is often necessary to sift sugar to get lumps out of it. Yeast breads are usually put in hot ovens for 10 minutes to stop the growth of the yeast, then lowered to finish baking. Quick breads are baked in a moderate oven, as a general rule.

Lynn Says

Sponge cakes should never be removed from the pan until they are thoroughly cooled. The air cells in these cakes, as in angel food cakes, are so delicate that they cannot hold the weight of the cake unless it is thoroughly cooled.

Bake muffins and cup cakes in fluted cups to save fats and to conserve on dishwashing. The pan does not have to be greased, and neither does the cup.

AGRICULTURAL EXTENSION SERVICE

Fear Thrips Are Here

Dr. Stanley F. Bailey, associate professor of entomology at the College of Agriculture, Davis anticipates quite a bit of damage from pear thrips this year, hence the reason for submitting the following article.

Pear thrips are emerging from the soil in Santa Clara Valley orchards, states L. C. Barnard, Santa Clara County Farm Advisor. A few cherry and pear growers have already applied sprays for their control. For this reason, Barnard urges that Bartlett pear growers keep close watch of their orchards. As soon as thrips are found in opening pear buds he recommends that a spray be applied to control them. Pear thrips attack cherries, prunes and plums, but, unless the epidemic is unusually heavy, it is not necessary to spray these trees for the control of the adult pear thrips commonly called black thrips.

Dr. Bailey recommends DDT as the best material for the control of adult pear thrips on pears. His recommended dosage is 2 lbs. of 50 percent DDT wettable powder to 100 gallons of spray, applied as soon as thrips are found in the opening pear buds. A spreader may be added, and where recommended with the spreader, kerosene may be used; but good thrip control has been secured with DDT wettable powder, without using a spreader. Do not use oil with DDT; it may penetrate the tissues and cause damage.

The larvae of pear thrips, commonly called white thrips, also damage pears, cherries, prunes and plums.

Dr. Bailey recommends the same spray for control of the larvae on pears. This spray is compatible with wettable sulphur or standard lead arsenate but should not be applied with liquid lime-sulphur.

On cherries, prunes and plums, Dr. Bailey recommends the use of a 5 percent DDT dust applied at the rate of 25 to 30 lbs. per acre, or the spray consisting of 2 lbs. 50 percent DDT wettable powder to 100 gallons spray, as recommended for pears. This should be applied as soon as the petals fall. The use of DDT in an orchard may make the control of red spider more difficult. Therefore, in orchards where red spider has caused damage in the past, he recommends the use of a Tartar emetic and sugar spray consisting of 2 lbs. Tartar emetic and 3 lbs. of sugar per 100 gallons spray.

4-H CLUB NEWS

Madrone

The Madrone 4-H club is conducting a scrap drive as a part of the club's money raising event, according to Jack Sebben, leader of the Madrone Club. Heading up the committee directing the scrap drive is Walter Walsh, who states the drive is progressing satisfactorily. He has requested any persons in the Madrone area to call him at his home or the Burnett school where he is an eighth grade student, if they have any contributions that can be made to the club.

Proceeds from the scrap drive will go toward the purchase of a woolen blanket which will be raffled the latter part of March. Wash believes the profit from the drive and the blanket will be sufficient to take care of the club's need for finances this coming year.

Sebben reports that the Madrone club members have their projects well under way. These projects include beef, poultry and rabbits for the boys, while the girls are busying themselves with clothing projects under the guidance of Mrs. R. Dunning.

Mission

The Mission 4-H club conducted a successful project tour on Saturday, March 1, according to assistant leader Jack Swickard, Jr., who was in charge of the tour. Those on the tour included 18 members and their leaders. The purpose of the tour was to show the club membership the different projects being undertaken by the individual boys and girls in the club, and to check on the progress of these projects. Each boy or girl was required to answer questions about his or her project and give reasons for the various practices that

Box Office Reporter

Certainly not for the kiddies is "Black Angel," coming Tuesday and Wednesday to the Campbell Theater but it's suspense and surprise filled fare for adults.

Universal's announcement that it would elevate Dan Duryea to stardom on account of his impressive performances in "Scarlet Street" and "A Woman in the Window," is made good here in a picture that compares directly to neither of these, although having to do, as they did, with a crime of passion.

Duryea is not in this picture the intentional and unredeemed heel he was in those others, but a victim of unrequited love and the demon rum, wherefore the melodrama is not exactly what audiences might be led to suspect, although quite a picture on other grounds and likely to do quite well for itself.

Produced by Roy William Neill and Tom McKnight, and directed by the former from a screenplay by Roy Chanslor, the picture opens with the murder of a beautiful blackmailer in a swank apartment under circumstances which point suspicion at a number of men.

Peter Lorre, Broderick Crawford and June Vincent are foremost in support of the new star, and the production and direction are of top quality throughout.

Campfire Girls

Celebrate 35th Anniversary

The week of March 16-22 marks the 35th anniversary of the Camp Fire organization. On Sunday all Protestant girls will attend a special candle-lighting vespers service at the Christian church, 80 South 5th street, San Jose, at 4:30 p.m.

A special invitation from Father Maher has been extended to Catholic girls to attend mass at St. Patrick's church, Ninth and Santa Clara streets, at 8 a.m. and stay for a special breakfast. All girls wishing to attend must make reservations for the breakfast with their leader or through the Camp Fire office.

OFFICERS ELECTED

Last Sunday evening the Pilgrim Fellowship, high school youth organization of the Congregational church, elected new officers for the coming six months. Elected were C. D. Cutting, president; Shirley Goodell, vice president; Audrey Berglund, secretary; Lorraine Wood, treasurer.

Next Sunday evening at 7:30, the new officers will be formally installed at a candlelight service. The public is invited. Miss Dorothy Merriman is the advisor of this group.

The value of all honey and beeswax produced in California in 1946 reached the record figure of $4,526,000.

Dry Land Pastures

It is time now to prepare for fall planting of dry land permanent pasture. There are two ways in which to prepare a firm seed bed. One is by summer fallowing; another is by planting Sudan between May 1 and 5, drilling it in and thereby getting much needed summer feed—then planting the fall mixture in the fall of the year.

Dry land pasture: 1 lb. alfalfa (California common), 2 lbs. Harding grass, 2 lbs. Perennial rye, 1 lb. Burnet, 4 lbs. Alta fescue, 1 lb. subterranean clover.—11 lbs. per acre.

All recommended seed mixtures have been tested in Santa Clara County and mixed seed recommendations have proved successful. For further information call on M. S. "Bud" Beckley, assistant farm advisor with the agricultural extension service, San Jose.

Of the 73,000,000 acres of commercial timber in the United States, 72 percent are in the western national forests.

KIWANIS CLUB HEARS TALK ON DAM

Herbert Jones, former state senator and attorney for the Water Conservation District, told members of the Kiwanis Club of the necessity for the construction of the Windy Point dam on the Los Gatos creek. He spoke at length on the water conservation problem in the valley and strongly advocated the building of the dam and moving of the Santa Cruz highway.

Guests present were Barrett McFadden of the Stanford-Palo Alto club, Bert Rudolph of San Jose, Lawrence Grotguth of Campbell Union High School, and Frank Congable, who was the guest of his nephew, Guy Farley. Also present was Ed Merrill, a re-affiliated member.

Next Tuesday evening the club will meet at the new high school cafeteria at 6:30 to entertain the varsity football and basketball teams at dinner.

Governor Warren Estimates Gas Tax Raise For The Average Driver

Governor Earl Warren estimated in a network radio interview this week that a proposed two-cent per gallon increase in the state gasoline tax will cost the average motorist $13.32 a year as his contribution toward the cost of bringing California's highway system up to date.

The governor emphasized that he has not personally recommended any specific amount of gasoline tax increase. He pointed out that the proposal for a two-cent increase is contained in Senate Bill 5, now under consideration by a special session of the Legislature called by the governor to cope with the state's pressing highway construction problem.

Should the legislature also vote to increase the motor vehicle registration fee and establish a $1.50 fee for drivers' licenses, the average motorist's total contribution would come to approximately $18 a year or $1.50 a month, the governor disclosed. Both increases are included in Senate Bill 5.

Governor Warren expressed the belief that few motorists will be unwilling to share in the added cost of making the state's highways safe for travel, provided that this cost is equitably distributed among all operators of motor vehicles.

hicles in proportion to their use of the highways. He said that heavy trucks should pay a greater share than passenger cars to compensate for the heavier strains they place upon the highways.

"Because of trucks, we must have wider roadbeds, heavier highway foundations and stronger bridges," the governor said. He added that Senate Bill 5 would increase the average tax on trucks by approximately $78.80 per year, as compared with the estimated $18 annual increase for an average motorist.

Asked to comment on recent proposals that toll roads be substituted for increases in truck and gasoline taxes, the governor declared that "toll roads are in the same category as poll taxes. It would be like going back to the Dark Ages to establish a new toll road system throughout our state."

"We are not going to solve our traffic problems by building a great toll road and hiring an army of toll takers. That will only be done by building highways that permit traffic to spread out with ease and which link our cities in a manner which permits free movement of both local and through traffic."
